unsound mind; nor to any male person who is or has been, within five years, an inmate of any county asylum or home for indigent persons, unless it satisfactorily appears that the cause of such condition has been removed, and that such male applicant is physically able to support a family; or if, at the time of making application, either of the contracting parties is under the influence of an intoxicating liquor or narcotic drug; and no license shall be valid for a longer period than 60 days from the date of issue.

SEC. 4. In those cases, when the right to a license is not made to appear, the clerk shall refuse to issue the same. At once, upon such refusal, he shall certify the proceeding to the proper orphans' court, without formality or expense to the applicants, who shall be notified by him of such action. Such application shall thereupon be, at the earliest practicable time, heard by the judge of said court, without a jury, in court or in chambers, during the term or in vacation, as the case may be; and his finding that a license ought to issue or ought not to issue shall be final, and the clerk shall act in accordance therewith; the true intent of this section being to secure for the applicants a hearing by said judge, without affirmative action by said applicants, and to give notice to them of such hearing, its time and place, without delay or expense.

SEC. 5. All acts or parts of acts conflicting with the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the marriage of persons not of legal age, without the consent of parents or guardians, as now provided by law.

Industrial Diseases—Prevention of—Blowers Required. (Act 447, July 24, 1913.)

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., That all persons, companies, or corporations operating any factory or workshop where emery wheels or emery belts of any description are used, either solid emery, leather, leather-covered, felt, canvas, linen, paper, cotton, or wheels or belts rolled or coated with emery or corundum, or cotton wheels used as buffs, shall provide the same with blowers or similar apparatus which shall be placed over, beside, or under such wheels or belts in such a manner as to protect the person or persons using the same from the particles of dust produced and caused thereby, and to carry away the dust arising from or thrown off by such wheels or belts while in operation directly to the outside of the building or to some receptacle placed so as to receive and confine such dust: Provided, That grinding machines upon which water is used at the point of the grinding contact shall be exempt from the provisions of this act: And provided, That this act shall not apply to factories or workshops where men are not employed continuously at such wheels or belts more than 3 hours in 24 hours.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of any person, company, or corporation operating any such factory or workshop to provide or construct such appliances, apparatus, machinery, or other things necessary to carry out the purpose of this act, as set forth in the preceding section, as follows: Each and every wheel shall be fitted with a sheet of case iron, or hood or hopper, of such form, and so applied to such wheel or wheels, that the dust or refuse therefrom will fall from such wheels, or will be thrown into such hood or hopper by centrifugal force, and be carried off by the current of air into a suction pipe attached to same hood or hopper.

SEC. 3. This act shall become operative on the 1st day of January, 1914.

SEC. 4. The inspectors of the department of labor and industry are hereby authorized to enter and inspect all factories and workshops, for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this act.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons, or company, or managers or directors of any company or corporation, who shall have the charge or management of any factory or workshop, who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 and not exceeding $300.
